

Job Shadowing Fact Sheet

Job Shadowing

Job Shadowing is a structured Career Exploration activity in which a student/learner is paired with and observes the workday of an employee, interacts with his or her clients or customers and attends meetings and other appointments with them..

Designed to help students/learners explore a field of interest while developing research skills and building occupational knowledge, job shadowing is conducted at the workplace and occurs over most of the workday.

Job shadowing is one activity in the continuum of authentic work-based experiences provided to all students/learners engaged in career-related programs or course of study in the Earn & Learn community.

Job Shadowing is designed to:

- Promote exploration of a field of interest.
- Provide an up-close look at a particular occupation, company and industry and the career path to that occupation.
- Help students/learners make the connection between school and the workplace.
- Inform career planning.

Job Shadowing is structured to:

- Allow students/learners to listen, receive information and ask questions.
- Enable students/learners to begin identifying areas of career interest.
- Build knowledge about the education and training needed for a particular job, career path and entry into the industry.
- Allow students/learners to practice and demonstrate key work-readiness skills such as communication and appropriate workplace behavior.

Job Shadowing is supported by:

- Classroom preparation, including research on the occupation, its industry and the participating company.
- Employer orientation and support.
- Opportunities to reflect upon the experience verbally and in writing.

Job Shadowing is connected to:

- Individual career development/training plans.
- Future work-based learning activities.
- The student/learner's next steps.

Job Shadowing Options

- Arrange for a group of students/learners to shadow different employees at the same time at the same company. Start the day with a Workplace Tour.
- Rotational Job Shadowing: Arrange for a student/learner to shadow a number of different people in the same company over time, rotating through a range of departments with different levels of employees in a series of Job Shadows.
- Virtual Job Shadowing. Arrange for a student/learner to shadow an employee volunteer virtually via Zoom or Facetime.
